218 WEST CENTRAL

The Markets

New York Stock Exchange.

New York, Dec. 11.—A fairly active demand for railway shares infused general strength into today's market after an irregular opening. New York Central was the feature, advancing 2½ to 105½, its best price since 1912, on rumors of an early increase in the dividend.

Canadian Pacific, which had been distinctly weak, made full recoveries and more. There was an inquiry for such specialties as General Motors common and preferred, Studebaker, Texas company, Merchantile Marine preferred, all at substantial gains. United States Steel was heavy at first, but moved forward with the balance of the list later. The closing was strong. Bonds were irregular.

Closes: American Sugar Refining, 97½; Anaconda Copper, 84½; Atchison, 196½; Clim Copper, 51; Inspiration Copper, 42½; Northern Pacific, 115½; Reading, 36½; Southern Pacific, 100½; Union Pacific, 125½; United States Steel, 86; United States Steel, pfd., 116½.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Wheat devolved material strength today after a weak start. The demand came chiefly from commission houses and seemed to be largely in the nature of a reaction from the effects of price falls. After opening we off to 16c up, with December at $1.12½ to $1.12½, and May at $1.12½ to $1.12½, prices rose all around to well above yesterday's figure. The close was firm, up to 15c net higher, with December at $1.12½ and May at $1.15½ to $1.15½.

Predictions of unsettled weather had a bullish influence on corn, corn being prices which ranged from 16c to 18c lower to shade advance were followed by moderate general upward movement.

Oats went higher with other cereals. Provisions made gains notwithstanding a decline in the hog market.

New York Money.

Wheat—Dec., $1.12½; May, $1.12½;

Corn—Dec., 67½c; May, 73½c;

Oats—Dec., 41½c; May, 44½c.

Government bonds, steady; railroad bonds, irregular.

New York Metals.
New York, Dec. 11.—Copper, steady; electrolytic, $19.75 to 20.00; iron, unchanged.

New York Cotton.
New York, Dec. 11.—Spot cotton, quiet; middling uplands, $12.35. No sales.

Cotton prices sustained a violent drop this morning and at one time showed a net loss of thirty-six to forty-two points or practically $2 a bale under the previous night. Selling orders began pouring in from the south, indicating decided weakness in the New Orleans market, and failure to absorb these heavy offerings caused prices to fall away sharply.

KELLY'S APPLICATION FOR BAIL IS DENIED

(By Evening Herald Special Wire)
Chicago, Dec. 11.—The application of Thomas Kelly, wealthy contractor of Winnipeg, Canada, for release on bail pending the determination of his appeal to the United States supreme court from the decision denying his petition for a writ of habeas corpus, was denied today by Judge Landis in the United States district court.

Kelly is charged with having defrauded the province of Manitoba in connection with the erection of new parliament buildings in Winnipeg.

VIENNA ENTERING ON COAL FAMINE

Zurich, Switzerland, Dec. 11 (via London, 1:17 p. m.)—Reports reaching here from Austria say that the supply of coal in Vienna is so small that the question of lighting the city has become acute.

John Rumohr, day chief clerk at the Alvarado hotel, left this afternoon for Grand Rapids, Mich., to spend the Christmas holidays. His place will be filled by Hugh Goslin, night chief clerk, who in turn is succeeded by Guy Hankins.

ACTIONS, ETC.

Actions speak louder, too, than looks?

Perhaps there's no reply exact,

Though girls who look like thirty years old,

Often quite like sixty—act.

PARADOXICAL.

Sally Gay—After he had kissed you good-night for the last time I suppose he took just one more?

Dolly Knit—Oh, yes; several dozen encounters, in fact!

JUST REVERSED.

Though rats desert a sinking ship,

'Tis proven in a trice,

The weaker vessel climbs a chair

To get away from mice.

THE HOG'S PHILOSOPHY.

First Hog—The question is, do we eat to live, or do we live to eat?

Second Hog—Both, my friend. Go right ahead with your dinner.

THE NEW ARITHMETIC.

My income is thirty-three hundred,

And this is the way it is spent:

Twelve hundred for eating and drinking and treating,

And nearly nine hundred for rent;

For dressing, twelve hundred aforesoe.

Although that's a little bit small,

While servants, high portions, and

doctors' extortions

Make up, say, a thousand in all.

We must go away in the summer,

And that costs eight hundred, let's say;

Five hundred will measure the money

for pleasure,

Including the opera and play,

And then there's—but just stop a moment.

Before I allow for my bets:

I've used quite clearly six thousand,

or nearly,

Well, most of it's paid for—in debt!
